Can You Tell

When the Manchu dynasty began?

How many cents there are in a rupee? a sen? a piastre?

What are the principal races in Turkey?

How many Protestant Foreign Missionary Societies there are in the world and what was their income last year?

Whether it will be full moon on the 22d of February, 1912?

What is the new political situation in South Africa?

How to pronounce Tientsin, Pasumalai, Salonica, Ahmednagar, Taikuhsien, Guadalajara?

How to pack and address, and when is the best time to send a parcel to Bombay?

A half-dozen definite benefits already conferred upon Turkey by constitutional government?

Where to address the missionary who visited your church last year?

All these questions and a thousand others no less likely to arise, are answered in the American Board Almanac for 1912. A single copy of this annual costs but ten cents, postpaid. Is it not worth the small trouble of mailing a dime with address to secure this handbook that will be useful the whole year long? Send to any of the district offices, or to

There are 6,033 Congregational Churches in this land, yet in only 123 of them is there a

MISSIONARY HERALD CLUB

Yet it takes but ten persons, paying fifty cents each, to constitute such a club for a year.

The church which has the Missionary Herald taken and read in ten or more of its homes is bound to become an earnest, intelligent, and broad-minded church; and five dollars will do it.

There is something wrong when pastors and church officers are content to let their churches drift along without a Missionary Herald Club to keep abreast of the most stirring news of the world.

Now is the time to organize these clubs for 1912. Get somebody busy in your church. Sample copies and subscription folders furnished if desired.

Send club lists with addresses and remittances to
